

To give the board of directors in the health safety and working environment.

1. To consider the policy and the plan of working safety, including the general safety to protect health and reduce accidents.
2. Report and suggest the measures or the way to develop the rules of safety working and the standard of safety working for the employees, the contractor and the out side work who use the service in the work place.
3. Promote and support the activities of safety working in the work place.
4. Consider the rules and the safety manual along with the safety and working measures of the work place to the employer.
5. Survey the safety working and check the record of the accidents in the work place at least once a month.
6. Consider the project or the training of safety working plan, the project or the training of responsibility in safety working of the labours, the leader, the executive, the employer and every personal officer to offer the employer.
7. Do the report of the dangerous working to the labours that have to be done follow the rules.
8. Follow the success of the reports with the employer.
9. Report the yearly success along with specific the problems, and difficulties and the suggestion of the committee working fully every year to the employer.
10. Evaluate the success of safety working in the work place.
11. Work in the safety first which the employer assigns.